

The no-wax, celebrity eyebrow secret
By Samantha Durbin

High Brow

The Feathered Brow™ by Kristie Streicher

At a recent party in Venice, we couldn't stop staring at the blonde with the standout eyebrows. Turns out, it was Kristie Streicher, the makeup artist behind Julia Roberts's and Rachel Weisz's caterpillar brows.

And now you don't need an Oscar to get her "feathered brow" treatment.

Settle into Streicher's chair at Warren-Tricomi and relax as she applies a vegetable dye that enriches hair color and slightly stains skin. Next comes the skin-softening Aforé Oil to prep for easy plucking. Finally, this maquillage Michelangelo sculpts hairs into an arch, tweezing every other inner hair and outer straggler.

You're taught how to fill-in with this powder-finish Kimiko brow pencil, and for a full-on Brooke Shields effect, brush inner hairs straight up, going outward from the middle to the end. Aftercare is retraining your hairs to sway in their new direction, with the help of a brow brush and some good 'ol Mary Kay clear brow gel.

KS Beauty Bar, Warren-Tricomi Salon 8327 Melrose Ave.; 323-651-4545 or ksbeautybar.com